

I am cousins with Chicco, Frosty & Nakida....

Over the past many years, I have been going to different Groomers who have "butchered" my hairdo and have also cut me many times!

I am tormented by these Groomers and getting too old for this abuse!

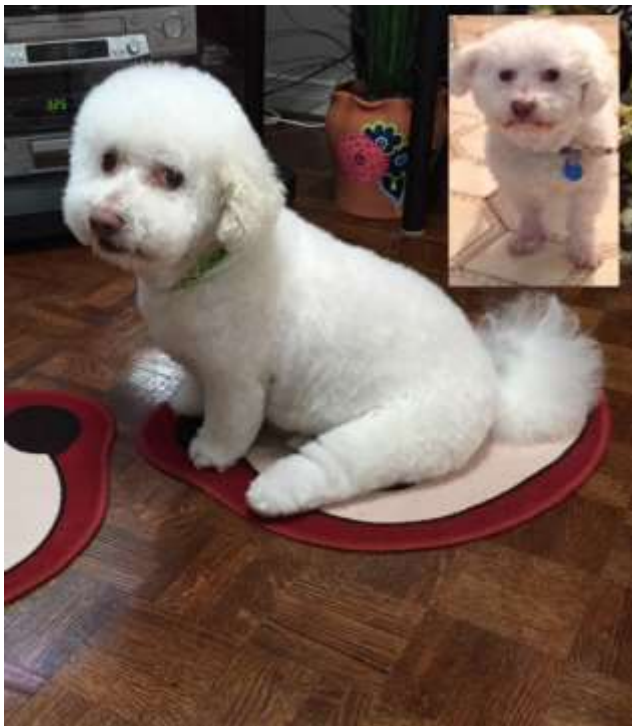

I was visiting my cousins today who told me they are going to a Spa Day at Beautiful Pets on Monday! I feel so sad that they have a great Groomer and jealous that they get to have a Spa Day while I get tormented by others!

My cousins said I can also go to Beautiful Pets!!

Will you take me and make me a Beautiful Pet too?

What day would you have available for me? Let me know....

Regards,

Hello Del...

Just thought to give you a bark...

Wanted to let you know that my family & friends are ecstatic about my new looks!!

I told them how great my new Groomer was and told them all about my new great experience and friends I met at the Spa!

I'm getting a bit older now and after all these years finally found some comfort and piece of mind. My parents are also so happy and are more relaxed that they know who they can bring me to.

See you again in about 2-months!
